

Environmental Policy Statement

Infrakup Ltd aim to use environmentally friendly products and service in the course of its daily activities, as well as promoting suppliers or third parties who also have similar policies, to its new and existing customers.

We offer recycling services for certain I.T Hardware and Software and advice on disposal and data wiping of goods which cannot be reused and need to be broken down for disposal, in line EU legislation.

Our products encourage flexible and remote working to help reduce excessive emissions caused by works commute to work. We promote low power consumption products, alternative energy and green products, which can be used by individuals and Small Business to reduce Carbon footprint.

Many new software products and upgrades are very resource intensive, often needing hardware to be upgraded to enable the features they enhance. We research new products and give our customers free, independent advice, on whether these products are really essential. This gives greater longevity to customers current I.T Hardware reducing the amount of recycling or disposal needed.

Proactive maintenance, health checks and careful selection of energy efficient hardware/software is also essential to insure Small Business can reduce their greenhouse gases.

We review procedure and products which can help infrakup recycle and become more efficient and environmentally friendly.

Infrakup aim to use transport, fuels, products and services to maximize efficiency and reduce light, power, Office space and refuse, therefore minimizing the company's environmental impact.

We strive to communicate all findings via public domain to insure most new legislation and green policies are known to the public or small business companies